NEWSPAPERS QUOTED

Debate Drifts Into a Discussion o ness Conditions Prevailing Throughout Country.

Throughout County.

The Senate yesterday struggled with the tariff question for six hours, but did not advance a single paragraph in the bill. There was one set speech, nearly two hours long, by Senator Myers, Demorat, of Montana, devoted to defending free wool; another two hours were given to the consideration of the first two paragraphs in the metal schedule, dealing with the senator ore, pig tron, and other raw products for steel manufacture.

While these matters were before the Senata, Senator Cummins of Iowa submitted an amendment white metal schedule for the senator cummins of Iowa submitted an amendment white metal schedule for the senator of the sena

Senator Oliver and Senator William AlSenator Oliver and Senator William Alden Smith both regular Republicans and devoted protectionists, attacked the Demcratic proposal of free iron ore. Senature Smith declared that free iron ore wasin the interest of the Pennsylvania Iron Company, a subsidiary of the Pennsyl, and is declared to the Bethiebem Sieel Company. He pointed out that it would permit the entrance into the United States of Cuban ores free of duty. The result, he declared, would be a loss in revenues of about 3Di.506 a year to the government, and that the censumer would Probably the most interesting part of the tariff nession was the first two hours,

which was devoted to presenting evidence
in the way of private letters, telegraims, newspaper clippings, &c., tending to prove or disprove the assettion made by some of the regular Republicans of the Senate
that the pending tariff bill has disturbed or is likely to disturb the business of the country.

Classifies Quaker Catch

Is a shark a fish?
A strange question, it seemeth. Eh?
Yes, so think all the officials at the Bureau of Fisheries hera. But there is one consolation; the siliy query did not originate in Washington. It came from Philadelphia, where the question seems a serious one-serious because it involves money.

It seems that a fishing club of that city recently offered a prize for the bigbest catch of the season. Dr. Robert E.
Lee, president of the Darby health board, killed a ninety-pound shark with an ax. and lost no time in sending his "catch" to the club. There was no question about its being the biggest, but when the time came for the awarding of the prize, Dr. Lee was passed over, on the ground that "a shark is a mammal." Dr. Lee is very much perturbed, and he has uppealed to the State Fish Commission for an opinion as to whether a shark a fish."

The question was put yesterday aftermoon to Dr. Leeter Jones, deputy commissioner of the Bureau of Fisheries.
The query touk away the deputy's breath, but when he sufficiently recovered, he whispered!

The certainty is."

The query took away the deputy a breath but when he sufficiently recov-ered, he whispered: "It certainly is." He was told the pittful story of Dr. Lee, and his reply was: "The man was treated unjustly. He certainly should have been handed the prise, for still I maintain that a shark is a fish."

evolution was indicated in dispatches to revolution was indicated in dispatches to the State Department yesterday, It was announced that the Kuo Min Tang, or Nationalist party, on Sunday declared itself opposed to the rebellion, and expelled five of its members who were among the principal leaders of the insurrection. This action was taken in compliance with an edict issued by Yuan Shih Kal, the Provisional Presi-dent.

From Canton it was reported that the rebel artillery has mutinted and the mutineers have killed their commander. They then looted the provisional treasury. The rebel military governor, Chen Chun Ming, has fled from his post. Fukien province has also resumed allegiance to the Pekin government. It is reported that the rebels are badly in need of funds with which to continue their military operations.

For World to Know.

It is understood to be the plan of the administration to make its offer of good offices to the Mexicans publicly, so that the whole world may know what is going on. It apparently is hoped that the Mexican factions will hesitate to bear the onus of the consequences which would follow a refusal to settle her internal to the property of the results of the internal of the consequences which would follow a refusal to settle her internal the members of the President's ghood offices. Should Mexico refuse, however, there will be no armed intervention in that country by the United States. This the administration has taken as the fundamental of its policy toward Mexico. Instead, in the event of a failure of the mediation program, the President, it is believed, will lift the embargo og arms and ammunition, and thus invite the Mexicans to fight it out until they weary of it. It is admitted that this would amount to virtual abandonment of American interests in Mexico. The administration does not believe that it has anything to fear from European nations, who, it has been suggested, might take it upon themselves to interfer in Mexico and pacify the country, in case the United States continues to do nothing.

The course adopted by President Wilson is wholly unprecedented in American interest in interfer in Mexico and pacify the policy of the President and Secretary of State Stryan, no one having these take the wild adviser of the government, was not consulted about the plan of sending Lind to Mexico. It was learned authoritatively last night that Mr. Moore is far from being in sympathy with the project, and that his views coincide with those of Ambassador Wilson, which were rejected by the President. For World to Know.

Mny Mean Delay.

Those persons not in sympathy with the project of sending Mr. Lind to Mexico City as the unaccredited personal representative of President Wilson believe that the step will accomplish nothing, and that it will mean only further delay of the ultimate solution of the Mexican problem. Meantime, it is pointed out, the disorders will in all probability grow worse, and more American lives and property be sacrificed.

The fact that President Wilson's plan, so far as known, does not involve the urging of Huerta to resign the Presidency is regarded as a great point in its favor. Dispatches from Mexico City in the last few days, known to have been inspired by the President himself, have made it clear that that redoubtable man has no intention of giving way to anybody, and that he will not even entertain offers of mediation, or anything else which is based upon the promise of his resignation from the Provisional Presidency. On the other hand the difficulties of leved that if the proposal were accepted the task would be an enormous one, that would result in nothing but intervention.

Must Guarantee Fairness.

It is pointed out that if the United States consents to supervise the elections, then it inust absolutely guarantee there into the United States have representatives at each of thousands of polling places, and in Washinston it is taken for granted that none but soldiers could be utilized for such a purpose. This use of soldiers would be construed as equivalent to intervention, it is believed, and would thrust upon the United States exactly the task which President Wilson is trying to avoid.

The Huerta government aiready has designated October S as the day for elections for a constitutional reduction of the Huerta government that the insurrection must be suppressed before these elections can bailed, and it has been understood that if by that date the country was not in a condition to fulfil the constitutional reduction on the file girls wounds were treated by per father, Chartes Dixon. I have great pleasure in extressing my high approval of your sealous and courageous efforts in the protection of American interests and indeed the interests of foreign governments generally during the critical periods of the Mexican disorders. Consent to No Plam.

The Constitutionalists, that is, the Northern rebels, have repeatedly declared through their agents here and in Mexico that they will consent to no plan offered through their agents which is not based on the immediate slimination of Huerta. In Mexico there never has been an honest election, according to persons well acquainted with the politics of that country.
